Name: Amanda Langford

Hobbies: I'm a big movie buff and avid video gamer. In my spare time I like to learn as much as possible. Learning is an addition of mine, I can't get enough. I do a lot of online learning for 2D & 3D visual effects and work on my own personal pieces to evolve my techniques in illustration and digital art, etc.

Profile

I am a creative freelance Illustrator ~ Graphic Designer ~ Artist. I have been working in the industry for five years with extensive experience in illustration, print design, web design and digital art.

I am an innovative self motivator and a fast learner with exceptional collaborative skills; dynamic multitasking with well developed written and verbal communication skills. I have worked with the design, technology, editorial, web and art industries.

I am working towards a successful career in the art and design world.
